The case is made of silicone material, and the band color is black.

Applications:

One of the key features of the Miler Digital Sport Watch is its stopwatch function. This makes it an ideal watch for athletes and fitness enthusiasts who want to track their performance during workouts or races. The digital display makes it easy to read and the rubber band ensures a comfortable fit during physical activities.

The alarm function of the ML03 model also makes it a convenient choice for people who lead busy lives. Whether you need a reminder for an important meeting or a wake-up call to start your day, this watch has got you covered.

The backlight feature of the Miler Digital Sport Watch is another useful attribute that makes it a great choice for outdoor activities. If you enjoy camping, hiking, or other outdoor activities, you'll appreciate the convenience of being able to check the time even in low-light conditions.

The Miler Digital Sport Watch is also water-resistant up to 100 meters, making it a great choice for activities like swimming or snorkeling. However, it should not be used for scuba diving or other deep-water activities.

In terms of style, the Miler Digital Sport Watch is a great choice for men who prefer a sporty, casual look. The rubber band and digital display give it a modern, masculine feel that's perfect for everyday wear. However, if you prefer a more classic look, you may want to consider a leather quartz watch instead.

Overall, the Miler Digital Sport Watch is a reliable and versatile timepiece that's perfect for a variety of occasions and scenarios. Whether you're an athlete, a busy professional, or simply someone who appreciates a high-quality watch, the ML03 model is definitely worth considering.
